

Victor Ruiz is the executive director of Esperanza Inc., founded in 1983 to improve the academic achievement of Hispanics in Greater Cleveland. Under Ruiz's leadership, Esperanza has grown and become a leader in addressing the educational needs of Cleveland's growing Hispanic community. The organization has received both local and national recognition for its work, including a 2015 Bright Spot in Hispanic Education award from the White House Initiative on Educational Excellence for Hispanics and the prestigious Anisfield-Wolf Memorial Award from the Cleveland Foundation.

Ruiz is a certified professional diversity coach who completed a three-year W.K. Kellogg Foundation fellowship focused on racial equity and healing. He serves on several local boards, including Cuyahoga Community College and United Way of Greater Cleveland.
